AMAZING GRACE EVENING

The Mission Outreach team of Escalon Presbyterian Church would like to invite you to participate in an evening of education and awareness concerning the global problem of slavery. More than 27 million, women and children live in exploitative slavery today.

During this short evening will have presentations on the past and how Christians have fought against the injustice of slavery. We will also have presentations on the present, where Christian organizations are boldly addressing the problem of slavery through legal action and economic aid. Believe it or not, you can participate in raising awareness, supporting and even being directly involved in an issue that matters tremendously to the heart of God.

This will be a 101 Introduction to the problem, with short video clips and handouts. Come join us Sunday Evening, June 7 at 6:00 p.m. for an hour in the Faith Center. Childcare will be available. We recommend that only high school age and above attend this event.
